2018 GLOBAL OCEAN REGIME CONFERENCE

Promoting Cooperation in Overlapping Maritime Areas

Date: 16-18 May 2018
Venue: Hyatt Regency, Jeju-do

	Wednesday, 16 May	Terrace Ballroom
18:00-20:00	Welcome Reception
Day 1	Thursday, 17 May	Terrace Ballroom
10:30-11:00	Registration
11:00-11:20	Opening Session Opening Remarks: Joung Myung-saeng, Vice President of KMI Congratulatory Remarks: Minister of Oceans and Fisheries
11:20-11:45	Keynote Speech Paik Jin-hyun, ITLOS
11:45-11:50	Photo Session
11:50-13:00	Luncheon
13:00-14:30	Session 1 : Preservation of the Maritime Environment in Overlapping Maritime Areas Moderator: Shunji Yanai, ITLOS Speaker: 1. Tullio Scovazzi, University of Milano-Bicocca Marine Protected Areas Where Claims by Different States Overlap 2. Daud Hassan, Western Sydney University Marine Spatial Planning on Overlapping Maritime Areas 3. Constantinos Yiallourides, University of Aberdeen, School of Law Environmental Protection in Undelimited Waters : Caution, Precaution and the Limits of International Law
14:30-14:50	Tea Break
14:50-16:20	Session 2 : Cooperative Law Enforcement Activities in Overlapping Maritime Areas Moderator: Kim Boo-chan, Jeju National University Law School Speaker: 1. Jill Barrett, Queen Mary London University and 6 Pump Court The International Law Framework for Co-operation on Law Enforcement in Overlapping Maritime Areas 2. Prakash Gopal, National Maritime Foundation, India Cooperative Maritime Law Enforcement in the Indian Ocean Region : Challenges and Opportunities 3. Kim Won-hee, Korea Maritime Institute Law Enforcement Jurisdiction in Overlapping Maritime Area of Northeast Asia
16:20-16:40	Tea Break
16:40-18:10	Session 3 : Questions on the Continental Shelf beyond 200 Nautical Miles Moderator: Neeru Chadha, ITLOS Speaker: 1. Aldo Chircop, Dalhousie University Challenges for the Implementation of UNCLOS Article 82 in a Transboundary Setting 2. Helmut Türk, Former Vice-President of ITLOS Questions relating to the Continental Shelf Beyond 200 Nautical Miles : Delimitation, Delineation and Revenue-Sharing 3. Joanna Mossop, Victoria University of Wellington Options for Joint Management of the Continental Shelf beyond 200 Nautical Miles
19:00	Dinner

Day 2	Friday, 18 May	Terrace Ballroom
08:30-10:00	Session 4 : Exploration and Exploitation in Overlapping Maritime Areas Moderator: Kim Doo-young, Pukyong National University Speaker: 1. Youri van Logchem, Swansea University, School of Law States Acting Unilaterally in relation to Disputed EEZs and Continental Shelves : What are the Limits Set by International Law for States in the Absence of Cooperation 2. Robert Beckman, National University of Singapore Current Issue - South China Sea and Joint Arrangement 3. Kim Hyun-soo, Inha University Roles of Joint Development Agreements on Maritime Boundaries in UNCLOS
10:00-10:20	Tea Break
10:20-11:50	Session 5 : Current Activities in the CLCS, and Island Regime Moderator: Park Yong Ahn, Seoul National University, CLCS Speaker: 1. Aldino Campos, Naval Academy, Portugal, Member of CLCS Data and Methodologies applied to Morphometric Analysis to Support Morphological Prolongation 2. Martin Heinesen, Faroese Geological Survey, Denmark, Member of CLCS Continental Margin – A Scientific Concept in a Legal Context 3. Larry Awosika, High Powered Presidential Committee on Nigeria Extended Continental Shelf Project, Nigeria, Member of CLCS On the Determination of the Base and the Foot of the Continental Slope around Islands in the Establishment of their Outer Limits in accordance with Article 76 4. Wanda de Landro-Clarke, Ministry of Energy and Energy Industries, Trinidad and Tobago, Member of CLCS A Shifting Balance : Considerations arising from the Interplay of the Scientific and Legal Aspects in the Establishing of a Continental Shelf by Coastal States
11:50-12:30	Session 6 : Wrap up Moderator: Kim Sung-jin, Chairperson of Global Ocean Regime Forum
12:30-14:00	Luncheon

2018 GLOBAL OCEAN REGIME CONFERENCE

Promoting Cooperation in Overlapping Maritime Areas